

<https://www.connect-energy.com/job/contracts-engineer/>

Contracts Engineer

Description

Our client is a well known offshore installation contractor that specializes in installation and removal of offshore oil & gas platforms, subsea structures and offshore wind farms.

Responsibilities

- Support Project / Package Manager as well as Project Contract Manager on all commercial and contractual matters
- Implement Project Contractual strategy and ensure adherence to such strategy during the project.
- Ensure compliance with all contractual procedures
- Monitor all project correspondence for commercial and contractual relevant matters
- Supervise the entire project administration process and maintain correspondence registers, always in anticipation of potential claims
- Draft commercial and contractual project correspondence
- Claims management
- Participate in project meetings and ensure adequate maladministration follow up

Qualifications

- Degree in Law with strong technical affinity or an engineering background with well developed legal and contractual awareness
- Min.s 6 years' experiences in similar position in the same industry (offshore & engineering)
- Knowledge of Common Law systems
- Good knowledge or oral and written English
- Strong communication and negotiation skills
- Accurate and structured
- Ability to show initiative with minimal supervision
- Team player
- Frequent travel abroad may be required

Hiring organization

Connect Energy

Employment Type

Contract

Duration of employment

1-2 years, renewable contract

Industry

Oil & Gas / Marine

Job Location

China

Date posted

November 18, 2019